In your presence there is full- | ness of joy; *

at your right hand are pleasures for- | evermore.

I will extol you, O LORD, for you have | drawn me up *

and have not let my foes rejoice | over me.

O LORD my God, I cried to | you for help *

and you have | healed me.

O LORD, you have brought up my soul | from Sheol; *

you restored me to life from among those who go down | to the pit.

Sing praises to the LORD, O | you his saints, *

and give thanks to his | holy name.

For his anger is but for a moment, and his favor is for a | lifetime.*

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that, as he says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but his very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with him and with one another. Our Lord invites to his table those who trust his words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as he forgives and loves us, that they may show forth his death until he comes. Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church— Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the sacrament, are asked first to speak with the pastor. For further study, see Matthew 5:23f.; 10:32f.; 18:15-35; 26:26-29; 1 Cor. 34.
