INTROIT Psalm 89:6, 14–16, 18; antiphon: Zechariah 9:9b, alt.

Behold, your king is com- | ing to you; *
righteous and having sal- | vation.

Who in the skies can be compared | to the Lord? *

Who among the heavenly beings is | like the Lord?

Righteousness and justice are the foundation | of your throne; *
steadfast love and faithfulness go be- | fore you.

Blessèd are the people who know the | festal shout, *

who walk, O Lord, in the light | of your face,

who exult in your name | all the day *

and in your righteousness are ex- | alted.

For our shield belongs | to the Lord, *

our king to the Holy One of | Israel.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son *

and to the Holy | Spirit;

as it was in the be- | ginning, *

is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

Behold, your king is com- | ing to you; *

righteous and having sal- | vation.

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that, as he says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but his very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with him and with one another. Our Lord invites to his table those who trust his words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as he forgives and loves us, that they may show forth his death until he comes. Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church— Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the sacrament, are asked first to speak with the pastor. For further study, see Matthew 5:23f.; 10:32f.; 18:15-35; 26:26-29; 1 Cor. 34.
