O God, be not | far from me; *

O my God, make haste to | help me!

My mouth will tell of your righteous acts, of your deeds of salvation | all the day,

for their number is past my | knowledge.

With the mighty deeds of the Lord God | I will come; *

I will remind them of your righteousness, | yours alone.

O God, from my youth you have | taught me, *

and I still proclaim your | wondrous deeds.

So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not for- | sake me, *

until I proclaim your might to another generation, your power to all | those to come.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son

and to the Holy | Spirit;

says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but his very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with him and with one another. Our Lord invites to his table those who trust his words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as he forgives and loves us, that they may show forth his death until he comes. Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church— Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the sacrament, are asked first to speak with the pastor. For further study, see Matthew 5:23f.; 10:32f.; 18:15-35; 26:26-29; 1 Cor. 34.
