INTROIT Psalm 2:7–11, 12c; antiphon: Isaiah 42:1a

Behold my servant, whom | I uphold, *

my chosen, in whom my | soul delights.

I will tell of | the decree: *

The Lord said to me, "You are my Son; today I have be- | gotten you.

Ask of me, and I will make the nations your | heritage, *

and the ends of the earth your pos- | session.

You shall break them with a | rod of iron * and dash them in pieces like a potter's | vessel."

Now therefore, O | kings, be wise; *

be warned, O rulers | of the earth.

Serve the | Lord with fear, *

and rejoice with | trembling,

for his wrath is quickly | kindled. *

Blessèd are all who take ref- | uge in him.

Glory be to the Father ...

Behold my servant, whom | I uphold, *

my chosen, in whom my | soul delights.

The Lord's Supper is celebrated at this congregation in the confession and glad confidence that, as he says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread and wine but his very body and blood to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with him and with one another. Our Lord invites to his table those who trust his words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as he forgives and loves us, that they may show forth his death until he comes. Because those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood unworthily do so to their great harm and because Holy Communion is a confession of the faith which is confessed at this altar, any who are not yet instructed, in doubt, or who hold a confession differing from that of this congregation and The Lutheran Church— Missouri Synod, and yet desire to receive the sacrament, are asked first to speak with the pastor. For further study, see Matthew 5:23f.; 10:32f.; 18:15-35; 26:26-29; 1 Cor. 34.
